Description of Property and Eligibility Determination (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo)

Constructed in 1950, this concrete block structure serves as the Victory Deliverance Temple. An undistinguished rectangular block with an addition front Livingston Road, the building is pierced by one over one double hung windows and sheltered by a hipped roof. The Temple is located in Chapel Hill, a community of free blacks that sprang up around Chapel Hill Methodist Church after emancipation.

Research has not revealed any association between this structure and events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history (Criterion A) or the lives of persons significant in the past (Criterion B). The building is not a good example of any style; nor is it distinguished; it does not represent the work of a master or display high artistic merit (Criterion C). Although archeology was not addressed in this study, there is no indication that the property is likely to yield information important in history or pre-history (Criterion D). Therefore, this property is not eligible for the National Register.
